Last call for Aconcagua!

Danny Bobrow is organizing an attempt of this peak via the Normal Route. Expect to be away for two weeks. We are looking to depart December 26, 2004. Contact Danny at 312-455-9498 or send e-mail to Director@ClimbForACause.org for info.

Call for manuscripts

The Chicago Mountaineer, your CMC's journal of club activities and passages is requesting your submissions for publication.

The following are the usual desperately needed items: Journals of recent and past trips, climbs, mountain ascents; Musings on the history of the club; Obituaries of club members who have died during the past year; Book and guide reviews; B/W photographs; Poetry. We ask that entries are in good public taste, that they model the traditional delightful English rhetorical prose style of mountaineering reports. Entries are subject to proofing for the usual grammar and punctuation errors. They can be submitted to the Publications Chairman, David Harrison at harrison@execpc.com via e-mail with MS Word file attachment or by Compact Disc in MS Word format or by mail in typed format to David Harrison, 10020 West Meadow Drive, Greenfield, WI 53228. Manuscripts should be no longer than 1000 words. The editor and CMC Board reserve the right to reject any submission not meeting the CMC's standards. Publication of the Journal is planned for spring of 2005.

John Speck Memorial Library to move to Lincolnshire

We are grateful to Zero Shim for having given the Library free lodging in a suite above his hardware store for the last ten years. He will be developing the space into condominiums so we have to move. Ben Kweton has space for the library in a room in his family's roofing business in Lincolnshire. Come help us move on Saturday November 13, 2004, after the last outing of the year. Details to follow.

As noted in the list at the right, the composition of the Board has changed due to recent resignations. There are several open positions on the Board. Your club needs YOU to contribute to its future direction and growth. Please consider getting involved by attending General Meetings and/or Board Meetings.

If you would like to get more involved to help out with any of the following, your assistance would be welcome: Club newsletter mailings; ideas and volunteer presenters for programs and presentations; rope leading for remaining outings this season; 2005 Annual Dinner plans - just to name a few. Please get in contact with one of us on the Board for more information and involvement. And thank you for your support!
